

SIPSON CARS LIMITED STATUS DISCLOSURE

Status Disclosure Document

Firm Name: Sipson Cars Limited

Nature of Our Service

Sipson Cars Limited is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) for consumer credit activities.

Sipson Cars Limited acts as a credit broker and not a lender. We do not provide finance ourselves and do not make lending decisions. Instead, we introduce customers to finance providers who may be able to offer credit facilities for the purchase of motor vehicles and related products.

Extent of Our Powers

Upon receiving FCA authorisation, Sipson Cars Limited intends to operate with a panel of approved lenders and finance providers. We will introduce customers to one or more lenders from our panel based on their individual requirements and circumstances.

Sipson Cars Limited is not an independent financial adviser and does not provide independent financial advice. We do not act exclusively for any single lender and customers are under no obligation to enter into any finance agreement following an introduction made by us.

Commission and Remuneration

Sipson Cars Limited may receive a commission or other remuneration from lenders if a customer enters into a finance agreement following an introduction made by us. The amount of commission received may vary depending on the lender and the finance product selected.

Customers may request information regarding our commission arrangements at any time.

Supporting Customer Understanding

This disclosure is provided to customers before any regulated credit broking activity is undertaken. It is designed to ensure that customers understand:

- That Sipson Cars Limited acts as a credit broker and not a lender.
- The nature and scope of our credit broking services.
- That we intend to work with a panel of lenders rather than a single lender.
- That we may receive commission from lenders for successful finance introductions.
- That customers remain free to decide whether to proceed with any finance agreement offered.

The information is presented in clear, plain language and is provided in a manner that is clear, fair and not misleading, enabling customers to make informed decisions about the services we provide.

For further information regarding our services, customers may contact Sipson Cars Limited directly.
